along with the Clinton County Historical Association present

The Rest of the Story of the Suffrage Movement

Dr. Sally Roesch Wagner

Mon., Oct. 16, 2017

SUNY Plattsburgh
Giltz Auditorium
(Hawkins Hall)

7 – 9 p.m.

Admission is Free

Informal story-telling followed by audience discussion in a safe, respectful environment. Come celebrate the victories of the past, while looking beyond to the issues of equality raised by our suffrage foremothers that continue to cause cultural dissent today.

Dr. Sally Roesch Wagner, the founding director of the Matilda Joslyn Gage Foundation in Fayetteville, New York, is a nationally recognized lecturer, author and performance interpreter of woman's rights history. Dr. Wagner is one of the first women to receive a doctorate in the United States for work in women's studies (UC Santa Cruz), and a founder of one of the country's first college women's studies programs, (CSU Sacramento).

Support from the SUNY Plattsburgh Office of the President, College Auxiliary Services and the Alumni Association is gratefully acknowledged. This program is free and open to the public. It is made possible through the additional support of the New York Council for the Humanities' Public Scholars Program.
